Isanc J. Oliver, and the City Directory,—From an advertisement in the papers of yesterday, put forth by my brother John, friends might conclude that I was to blame for the rance of his name in the Directory. This is to inform all, that the first I knew of the matter was on reading brothe John's advertisement. My son put his name in said Directory in Caps without my knowledge or consent. I hope no one will be misled thereby. ISAAC J. OLIVER,

Not in the Directory.—By an error, or trick, JOHN W. OLIVER, Steam Job Printer, No. 43 Ann. st., who has appeared in the City Directory for nearly a quarter of a century, is or this year, not withstanding he paid to have his name inserted.

no other war in the city has done. Iney have compensed the runneller to close on the Sabbath Day, according to law. We see they have resisted, he has gone in and took them from behind the har, and then closed their places; when, in the Sevents, Teuth Eleventh and Seventeenth Wards, we find them open on the Sabbath, adoptating out Ward. Now, give us 21 Capt. Steeres, with his crew, and one Falconer in each Ward, and the city is ours. We have wanted patiently for higher power, but party politics in this city dare not move. The Liquor Association is see powerful for them. The working portion of this Ward are determined that if men, women and children are to be facilitied, it must be done according to law, and only six days in the week. Then, walk up to the Captain's office with 20 freeholders and a good character.

Caution to Purchasers of Billiard Tables.

As unscrupious persons in this city are endeavoring to palm their imitations of my tables on the public, by faisely asserting that a decision has been obtained affecting the patent for my Combination Cushious, I take this opportunity of stating that no decision affecting any of my patents, has ever been rendered, and of informing the public, pending the measures taken to put an sond to imitations of the outward form of my Cushions, that O'Connor & Collender of Nes. 53, 65, 67 and 69 Crusbysts, in shis city, are the sole manufacturers of my model Tables and Combination Cushions.

All who hold in reverence the Divine Volume, and would have the sublime tratia which it teaches placed before mankind in their most attractive forms, must look with favor upon the heart and intellect employed in a labor so praise-worthy. The pages of Holy Writ, filled as they are with sublime thoughts, important leasons, and attractive incidents, furnish never-ending themes for the pen of the poet and the pencil of the strist. The most brilliant geniuses of different ages have drawn their inspiration from it, and, as the fruit of their labors, have given to the world works which have influenced the human heart as nothing else can influence it. And yet the work is as but just commenced. The libbe actually teems with gems of sacred beauty which have mever yet been either poetically or pictorially illustrated. It is or pictorially illustrated. It are hundreds of persons groping are hundreds of persons groping the beauties of Holy of THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY—a paper which is admit by all to be an unexceptionable family journal—have engaged i services of A.
